

TAMAMUSHI - JAPANESE LACQUERWARE WITH A MODERN GLOW

ABOUT US

Tohoku Kogei Co., Ltd. was established in 1933 in Sendai, Japan, and has continued the legacy of TAMAMUSHI lacquerware.

Combining traditional urushi techniques with modern aesthetics, our artisans create timeless, radiant pieces.

We aim to blend heritage craftsmanship with contemporary design for global appreciation.

WHAT IS TAMAMUSHI LACQUERWARE?

TAMAMUSHI lacquerware is known for its signature iridescent glow, achieved through layers of urushi lacquer and fine metallic powders.

The name derives from the jewel beetle 'Tamamushi', known for its radiant, shifting colors.

Each piece is hand-polished to perfection, combining light, texture, and tradition into every object.
